Washington Nationals Nothing says summer like baseball and hot dogs, and going to a Nationals baseball game is the perfect way to enjoy summer in DC. Please see concierge for assistance. Joe Conley Guest Service Agent Kayak the Potomac Rent kayaks from the Thompson Boat Center in Georgetown and paddle along the Potomac River. Drift down past the national monuments and enjoy the cool water breeze. This is surely something to cherish on a hot and muggy DC summer day. Patrick Donovan Manager on Duty	The Shops of Georgetown If you are ready to shop until you drop head over to Georgetown. Try CUSP and Urban Chic, two great boutique shops. Also, the vintage shop Secondhand Rose is one of DC's best kept secrets. Wisconsin and M St NW LizAnn Thompson Guest Service Agent Dupont Farmer's Market On Sundays wander over to the Dupont Farmers Market on the circle. Look forward to summer fruits, veggies, and flowers as well as cheeses, breads and mouthwatering pastries. Rhonda Crittle Group Rooms Coordinator	Cashion's Eat Place A great local hidden gem offering outstanding Americana cuisine with local flare. The menu changes daily and save room for dessert. 1819 Columbia Rd NW * (202) 797-1819. Philip Biggerstaff Concierge Hank's Oyster Bar The perfect spot for dining al fresco. Best selection of raw oysters in the district. 1624 Q St NW * (202) 462-4265. Edgar Padilla Concierge	ChurchKey A hip spot in the Logan Circle Neighborhood within walking distance. With a selection of over 500 beers, no wonder it's a local favorite. 1337 14th St NW * (202) 567-2576 Clayton Smith Manager on Duty The Gibson On the U St Corridor is one of DC's most popular speakeasies. Don't expect to get away with ordering a traditional martini with these creative bartenders. Be advised reservations can be as hard to come by as the entrance. Liz Gorman Concierge
WELLNESS	MUST DO	MUST SEE	ONE-OF-A-KIND
Bikram Yoga Dupont One of the more popular locations in the city to practice 'hot yoga'. Located right off of Dupont Circle, feel free to walk-in to a class for $20. 1635 Connecticut Ave NW Nicole Pierce Catering Coordinator Run the District If you are an avid runner or just a leisurely jogger, hop on the Rock Creek Parkway trail. It will take you through the National Zoo in one direction or past the Kennedy Center to the National Mall and Monuments in the other direction. Stop by the concierge desk for a map! Thomas Fraher Hotel Manager	Jazz at Sculpture Garden A local favorite is Jazz in the Garden at the National Gallery of Art. Every Friday throughout the summer, locals stake out a spot on the on the grass of the sculpture garden, while enjoying wine, sangria and snacks. Jill Strauss People &amp; Culture Manager Segs in the City For a unique way to tour the city try a segway safari offered by Segs in the City.
